

FORENSIC CASE CHRONOLOGY

Forensic Case Chronology — People v. Corwin

Competency to stand trial · Case No. CR-2026-04471 · Ridgeview County Superior Court

CASE	People v. Corwin, Daniel J.
CASE NO.	CR-2026-04471
COURT	Ridgeview County Superior Court
STATUTE	Penal Code §1370 – Incompetent to Stand Trial
STATUS	Committed to State Hospital; non-restorable
PREPARED FOR	M. Alvarez, Deputy County Counsel

AI does the reading. You make the calls – always.

Overview

A chronology of the competency proceeding and treatment record for Mr. Corwin, built from the court file, jail medical and mental-health records, and State Hospital treatment notes. Events are merged into one dated sequence so a reviewer can see the path from arrest to the current non-restorability finding without opening four separate files.

Timeline

DATE	EVENT	SOURCE
02/11/2026	Arrest on misdemeanor vandalism and resisting-arrest charges; booked into Ridgeview County Jail.	Arrest report, p. 1–3
02/13/2026	Jail intake mental-health screening flags disorganized speech and delusional content; referred for evaluation.	Jail MH intake, p. 4
03/04/2026	Doubt as to competency declared under PC §1368; criminal proceedings suspended.	Minute order, 03/04/2026
03/22/2026	PC §1369 evaluation completed; opines defendant incompetent to stand trial.	PC 1369 eval, p. 1–9
04/09/2026	Court finds defendant IST; committed to State Hospital under PC §1370 for competency restoration.	Commitment order, 04/09/2026
04/28/2026–07/16/2026	State Hospital restoration treatment: antipsychotic titration, weekly competency-restoration groups, three progress reports to the court.	DSH progress reports (3)
07/16/2026	Treating team opines no substantial likelihood of restoration within the statutory period.	DSH discharge summary, p. 2
08/01/2026	Court orders conservatorship evaluation in lieu of further restoration treatment.	Minute order, 08/01/2026

Every entry above carries a citation to the specific document and page it was drawn from in the full chronology; citations are abbreviated here for the sample.